

Some Things Every Father Should be Guilty Of

Acts 24:14

There are many things you remember about your Dad. Some of you remember his words of kindness, advice, or his hard work to provide for the family. Some of you may remember things that you would like to forget. Today I would like to look at some things that every father should be guilty of.

I. He should be guilty of being a Christian (1 Tim. 2:4)

1. What a Christian is
2. How to become a Christian
3. What it means to be a Christian

II. He should be guilty of dedicating himself to God (Rom. 12:1-2)

1. The ground of dedication
2. The character of dedication (voluntary, complete, sacrificial, practical, rational)
3. The negative and positive demand

III. He should be guilty of being the spiritual leader of his family

1. The place of leadership
2. The family entrusted
3. The responsibility of leadership

IV. He should be guilty of being concerned about God's house

1. His association
2. His attitude
3. His attendance

V. He should be guilty of winning others to Jesus

1. The command to win others
2. The cry from below (Luke 16:19)
3. The plea from without (Acts 16:9)
4. The urge from within
